You can Be Next – Valuable Insights for Civil Services Exam Aspirants

Date: 7th October, 2021

The Residential Coaching Academy, Aligarh Muslim University organized a motivational cum interactive Session on “You can Be Next – Valuable Insights for Civil Services Exam Aspirants” and Dr Ehtesham Waquarib, IPS was the Chief Guest on the occasion.

Delineating various important strategies and the approach for preparation of the UPSC Civil Services Examination, Dr Waquarib motivated the students to develop a competitive mindset, read newspapers daily, and work on presentable writing skills. He stated that this approach is crucial for an aspirant to successfully qualify the Civil Services Examination.

Prof Imran Saleem, Director, RCA-AMU presided over the event and said that RCA-AMU is fully committed to provide all the required coaching and guidance facilities to our university students who are determined to pursue Civil Services as a career. He emphasized that AMU students have immense potential and can certainly be successful in cracking such Competitive Exams like the Civil Services.

Dr Saima Shadab, Assistant Professor, RCA-AMU conducted the session and Dr Jahangir Chauhan, Assistant Director, RCA-AMU proposed the vote of thanks.

The session was well attended by students from IEEE Student Branch, ZHCET, Women’s College, AMU and other departments of the University.
