

Event Report: National Constitution Day Celebration 2025

Organized by: First Year Department & Department of Computer Science and Engineering

Institution: O. P. Jindal University, Raigarh

Date: 26 November 2025

Time: 10:20 AM

Venue: TB-07

OPJU

O. P. JINDAL UNIVERSITY, RAIGARH

First Year Department & Department of Computer Science & Engineering

organizing

National Constitution Day Celebration 2025

Date: 26 November 2025 | Time: 10:20 AM | Venue: TB-07

Activities You Can Participate In:

Drawing/Poster Presentation

Theme: Constitution Day

5-Minute Speech

Theme: The Indian Constitution and Its Importance

Debate Competition

Theme: "Fundamental rights are a suitable approach towards ensuring justice and welfare for the citizens of society—justify."

Quiz Competition

Theme: Constitution Day

1. Introduction

O. P. Jindal University, Raigarh proudly observed National Constitution Day 2025 on 26th November 2025. The event was jointly organized by the First Year Department and the Department of Computer Science & Engineering to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution and to promote awareness regarding its values among students.

The celebration aimed to instill constitutional values, encourage civic responsibility, and educate students about the significance of the Constitution as the guiding document of the nation.

2. Objectives of the Event

- To honor the day when the Constitution of India was adopted.
- To spread awareness about constitutional values, rights, and duties.
- To encourage students to actively participate in democratic and civic processes.
- To provide a platform for students to express their understanding through competitions.

3. Key Faculty Involved

The event was conducted under the guidance and leadership of:

- Dr. Ashish K. Sharma – Dean & Head of Department (CSE)
- Dr. Pradeep Shriwas – Assistant Professor (Sr. Grade)
- Prof. Ajay Prasad – Assistant Professor (Sr. Grade)
- Prof. Jemarani Jaypuria – Assistant Professor, CSE
- Mr. Jaggannath thawait – Lab Instructor, CSE

Their continued support, encouragement, and supervision played a crucial role in the successful execution of the event.

4. Activities Conducted

A variety of events were organized to engage students creatively and intellectually. The activities included:

a. Drawing / Poster Presentation

Theme: Constitution Day

Students expressed their ideas through posters and drawings depicting themes such as constitutional values, national symbols, fundamental rights, and duties. The artwork showcased creativity and a deep understanding of India's democratic framework.

b. 5-Minute Speech Competition

Theme: The Indian Constitution and Its Importance

Participants delivered impactful speeches highlighting the historical significance of the Constitution, the role of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, and the relevance of constitutional values in modern society. Students demonstrated confidence and strong communication skills.

c. Debate Competition

Theme: "Fundamental rights are a suitable approach towards ensuring justice and welfare for the citizens of society—justify."

This event saw enthusiastic participation, with students presenting arguments both for and against the topic. The debate encouraged critical thinking and reflection on the balance between rights, justice, and societal welfare.

d. Quiz Competition

Theme: Constitution Day

The quiz tested students' knowledge about the Constitution, its making, its articles, important amendments, and historical facts. It was an interactive and engaging session that helped reinforce key concepts.

5. Participation and Engagement

There was active participation from students across both the First Year Department and the CSE Department. The venue was filled with enthusiasm and patriotic spirit. Faculty members encouraged students throughout the program and helped in smooth coordination of all activities.

6. Observance of Constitution Day

Students collectively took part in understanding the importance of 26th November, the day when the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution in 1949. The spirit of the day was honored with respect towards national symbols, as represented prominently in the event banner.

7. Outcome of the Event

The National Constitution Day Celebration 2025 was highly successful in achieving its objectives:

- Students gained deeper insights into the Indian Constitution.

- They developed awareness about fundamental rights and duties.
 - Participants enhanced their public speaking, creativity, and critical thinking skills.
 - The event fostered national pride and civic responsibility.
-

8. Conclusion

The event concluded with appreciation remarks from faculty coordinators and recognition of the efforts of participating students. The celebration was a tribute to the guiding principles laid down in the Constitution of India and served as a reminder of every citizen's role in upholding the democratic values of the nation.

National Constitution Day Celebration 2025 at O. P. Jindal University stood as an inspiring and educational experience for all attendees.